

AMMS INDUCTION CHECKLIST

NAME:.....

COMPANY NAME:.....

DATE COMPLETED:

Is the vehicle combination you are driving run under a AMMS permit
If you are running under an AMMS permit do you know which level?
Is there a copy of the AMMS permit in the vehicle?
What type of product/s are you carrying and how will you determine the weights of the product
Is there a loading plan for defining each axle group weigh available?
Are you aware of the Road Networks allowed for the Level AMMS permit you are operating under?
What do you do if you are over loaded?
Who do you report to if you are over loaded?
Do you understand the different load variations in load densities and how they will be managed
What does GVM stand for and what does it mean
What does GCM stand for and what does it mean
Do you understand the documentation and records that need to be kept as verification
Do you know who manages the documentation and records and where they are to be kept/filed
Level 1
Under level 1 how much can you carry on the steers
Under level 1 how much can you carry on the tandem drives
Under level 1 how much can you carry on the tri axle group
Level 2
Under level 2 how much can you carry on the steers
Under level 2 how much can you carry on the tandem drives
Under level 2 how much can you carry on the tri axle group
Level 3
Under level 3 how much can you carry on the steers
Under level 3 how much can you carry on the tandem drives
Under level 3 how much can you carry on the tri axle group	